

MOVIE NIGHT SATURDAY, JUNE 1 AT 7:00pm

THE BIRDCAGE

The Birdcage centers on the life of a middle-aged, flamboyant gay couple. Armand & Albert, in the eclectic community of South Beach, FL, who have raised a straight son. Their newly engaged son wants to bring his fiancée and her ultraconservative parents home to meet his family for the first time. Armand & Albert pretend to be very straight by playing out the roles of heterosexual husband and wife!

Based on the original French film, “La Cage Aux Folles” this is a hilarious yet poignant story that keeps the viewer both smiling and on the verge near tears. Robin William and Nathan Lane make a great comic team. Gene Hackman plays the father of the finance and a straight conservative Senator in a jam. The supporting cast is marvelous. Directed by Mike Nichols, this is an experience you will want to enjoy with temple family and friends. The film is rated “R” for obvious reasons please use discretion and be fair warned.

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED. SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES ON JUNE 1st
